IN FEBRUARY/MARCH: the entertainment issue

Baby, it's cold outside; so what better time to talk about what's hot on television, curl up with our favorite authors, share the music that's burning up our playlists and get fired up about film, including the first releases of 2009 and the latest crop of Academy Award contenders.

IN APRIL/MAY: the travel issue

With summer around the corner, we get readers ready to relax — whether they're looking for an adventure to remember or an escape to help them forget. We also ask our favorite bold-faced names where they sign the register and offer tips about how to pack and which supremely stylish bags to stuff.

It's the most wonderful time of the year, as LGBT people the world over join together to celebrate what unites us and what makes us uniquely different. We shine the spotlight on men and women who are giving LGBTs a good name and see how men and women across the nation and around the globe are getting their Pride on.

IN AUGUST/SEPTEMBER: the design issue

Back by popular demand, Metrosource's Design Issue shines the spotlight on design of every kind. We start with the fiercest of fall fashions to interiors designed for better living and go beyond to find out how people are incorporating good design into every aspect of their lives.

From Halloween candy to Thanksgiving turkey, temptation is coming. So we're going to inspire our readers to have happy and healthy holidays with smart diet and exercise advice and inspirational stories from experts, celebrities and people who are winning the fight for fitness.
